Current Study: Re:Solution – by Andy Stanley

This is that time of year when we become painfully aware of where we are not, who we are not, and what we need to do differently. Traditionally, the New Year is a season of self-absorption. It's all about what we can do to make ourselves better people. The result is that churches, health clubs, debt counselors, and vitamin shops do a booming business. But we tend to forget that the people we respect the most didn't devote their lives to becoming the best version of themselves. They devoted their lives to making a difference in the world or in someone's world. Andy Challenges us to make a resolution that makes a difference.

It's a common misperception that the Christian life is all about avoiding messes and staying out of trouble. But it turns out that your messes and the messy people you meet along the way may actually be your greatest opportunity to know God. In this 4-part series, Andy reminds us that following Jesus isn't about avoiding something; it's about becoming something. The four sessions include... 1. The Mess in the Mirror 2. Best Mess Ever 3. Inside Out 4. Messy-er
